What a Gentle Man

I've found out something from Britain that I think is lovely.

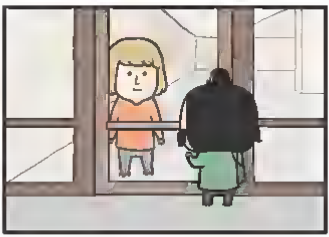
It is that people usually have very good basic manners.

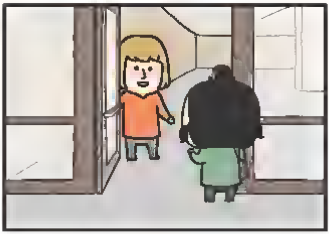
For example, using a door.

If someone opens a door,...

. . 99% of them hold the door for the next person



If someone sees someone else from the other side of the door,...



... they give way so others
can go through first.

I can see these simple manners
from all of genders and ages.

Ladies First

But especially,
the manners of men towards women is noticeable.

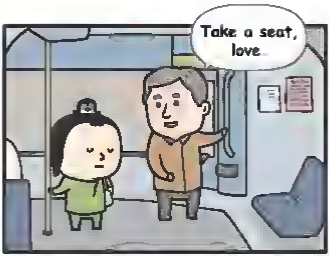
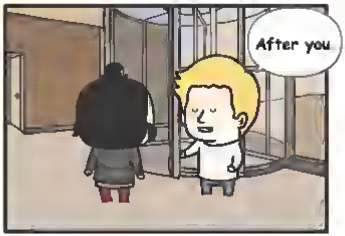
For example, when I was on the bus.



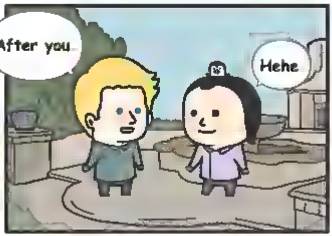
Even an elderly man tries to give his seat to me

So that way,
Mev has good manners in his blood.

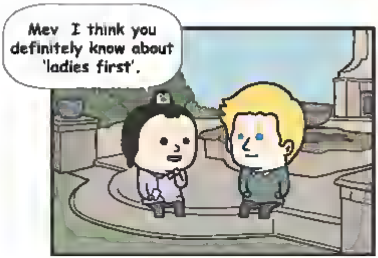


Always. .

Penguin first.



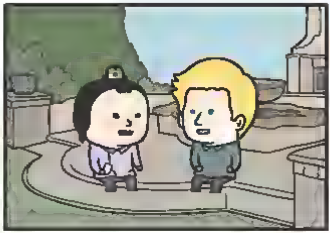
Penguin first.

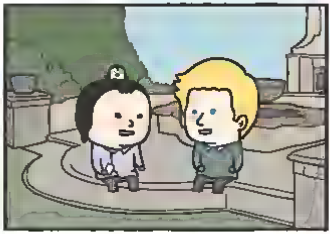


Then one day,
I heard a very clear reason
about why he does this.

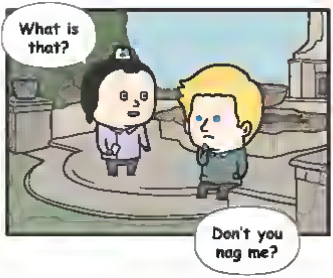
I've got to be careful.

What if there is danger behind the door.

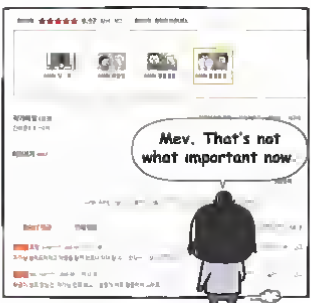




At that moment...



What is that?
Don't you nag me?



Mev. That's not what important now.

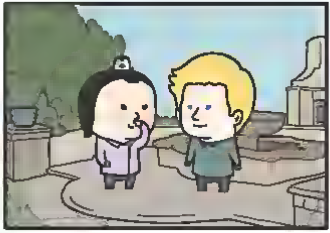
Last week, I was a happy person who didn't get upset at all by anything.



(Thank you_)
